As they deliver,
the treasury pays them!

Now, they can continue to contribute to Decred's (r)evolution.

A community member has an idea to push Decred's growth.

Stakeholders review the proposal.

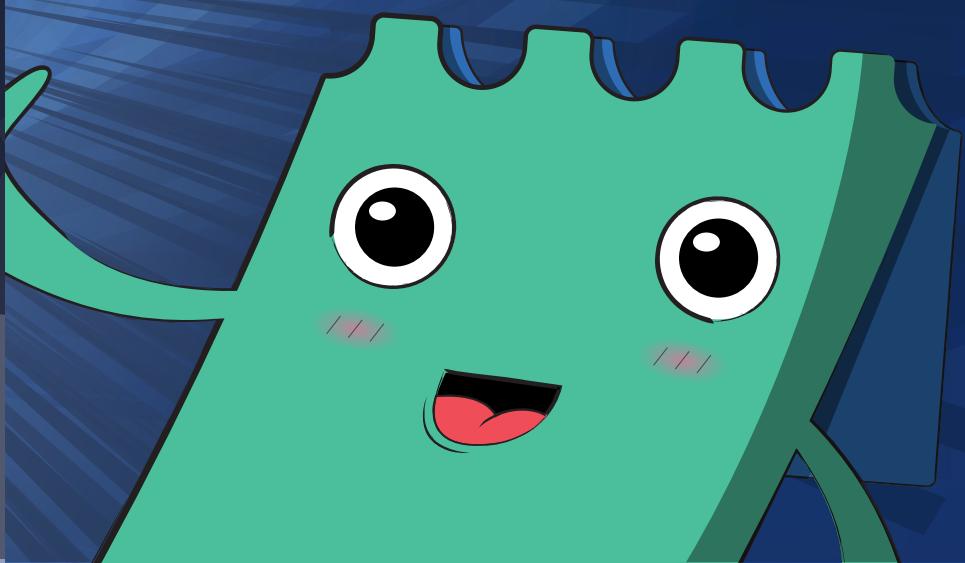

Then, the author updates it and starts the voting phase.

This print and the first nine comics were made possible by the Decred community and its stakeholders.

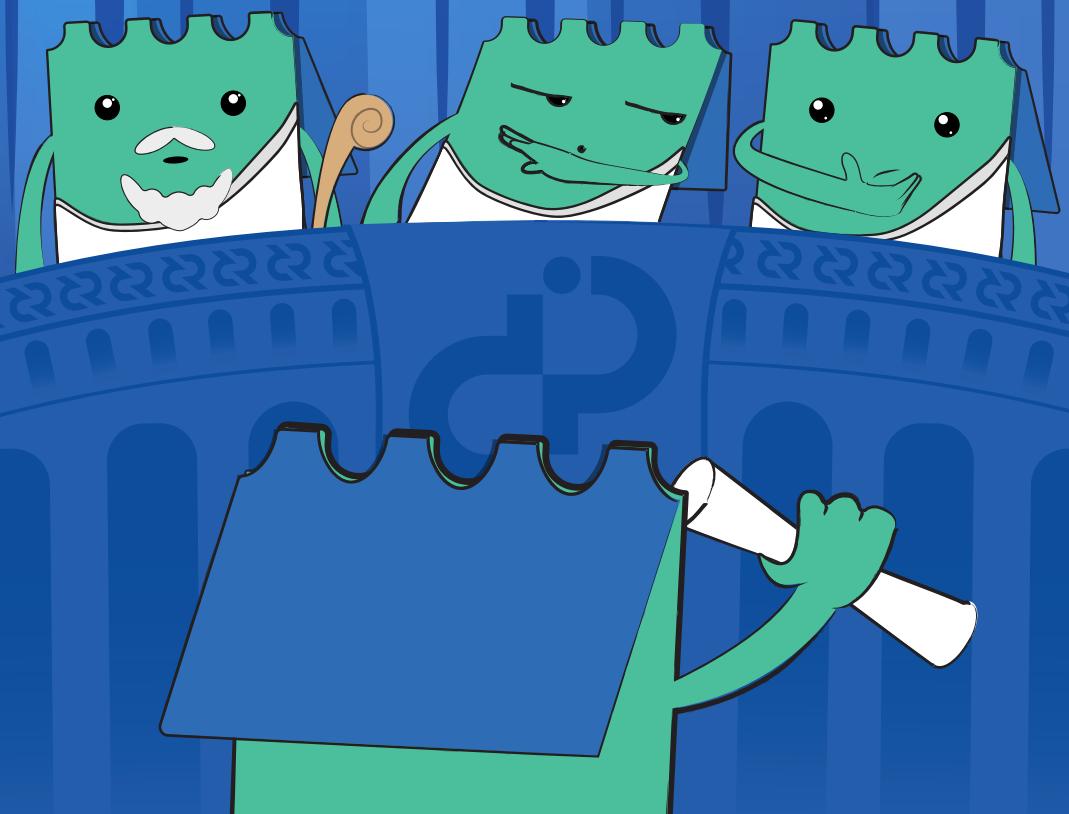

DCR Comic aims to educate as many people as possible on the virtues of new decentralized financial technologies.
